Brian Bonser is an Associate in the Firm's Insurance and Reinsurance Services Group.

Brian has dedicated his career to serving insurance carriers in New York, New Jersey and throughout the country. He provides coverage advice and litigates disputes under commercial general liability, commercial auto liability, directors and officers, professional errors and omissions, and excess and umbrella policies. Brian handles every aspect of litigation from inception to resolution, including appeals. He has prevailed on dozens of dispositive motions, including high-value bad faith actions and full-policy additional insured disputes, as well as disputes relating to priority of coverage and allocation. Brian also has significant experience representing insurers in matters involving lost policies and long-tail claims relating to environmental contamination, asbestos exposure, and allegations of abuse.
